OF NEWTON

Every Child Can

At Suzuki School of Newton, c/o Newton Cultural Center, 225 Nevada Street, Newtonville, MA 02460

Facilitator: Sachiko Isihara

Sunday, January 29, 2012, 12:30 – 7:00 p.m.

Tuition: $130 by 1/18/12, $150 after 1/18/12

For parents, teachers, prospective teachers, board members, and administrators, this course provides an inspiring, in-depth look at the Suzuki approach to teaching and learning. A fast-paced, engaging, and inspiring program, ECC includes video materials and SAA-developed courseware and provides each participant with useful reference materials for later study. This course is not instrument-specific, and experienced Suzuki teachers are also encouraged to participate for renewed inspiration or review. For teachers, ECC, serves as the required first course in the Suzuki Association of the Americas (SAA) Teacher Training Program.

Suzuki School of Newton (SSN), established in 1986 by Gwendoline Thornblade, seeks to promote and expand the work of its music education programs by providing teacher training in the Suzuki method to qualified candidates, according to the requirements set by the Suzuki Association of the Americas. SSN will offer three teacher unit courses in the Fall Semester 2011 for Suzuki violin, cello and piano. Pending evaluation and completion of all course requirements, participants may register their course completion with the Suzuki Association of the Americas.
